What information should you provide when checking in online?

- date of birth,
- nationality,
- document type (identity card or passport),
- number and series of document,
- issuing country,
- issue and expiry date of document.

Attention! The scope of data may vary depending on the route and entry regulations of the country of arrival.

After receipt, the boarding passes should be printed and collected together with the document confirming the data used to perform check-in.

When is the eSky customer given an easyJet boarding pass?

eSky customers with purchased online check-in service can provide the data needed for check-in before the airline's launching of the service. In this case, they can do this immediately after receiving an email from eSky with a link to the secure form through which they can provide their data. At the moment of launching check-in, we will immediately carry out the whole process on behalf of the passenger and send them the generated printable boarding passes to the e-mail address provided.

eSky customers who do not purchase the mentioned service will receive a link to the form to be filled in on the airline's website at the time of launching check-in. Next, they will receive the generated boarding pass that should be printed before arriving at the airport.
